Important Reminders

Approval and Payment Before Adding Players

Any new player joining a team must have the approval of the Executive Board and must have paid their dues to the Treasurer (Sam Lamson) before they throw their first dart.

If for any reason your team does not follow the procedure above, you will find a huge penalty awaiting you. At a minimum you will lose game points for each game the ineligible player played (whether they won or lost) and you will lose any points the player won. We're talking upwards of 18 points!

New Player Handicaps

Captains,

If you are using a player who is new to the BCDL, their handicap is equal to the median of returning players in your division (whew!). What this means is:

A Division:	13
B Division:	11
C Division:	10
D Division:	9

Have fun.... or Jason will hurt you!

Across the Boards

Across the Boards, the newsletter of record of the BCDL, is on hiatus this week while Shark recovers from the NC State Shoot last weekend at the Omni. Which brings to mind the question: Where were you?

Anyway, this week the old BCDL News gets dusted off and trotted one more time. Never fear, ATB will return in your packets next week with the usual 8 pages packed with stats, results, and unsubstantiated rumors.

NCDO Election

Anita Tyndall was elected to a two year term as president of North Carolina Dart Association, beating yours truly in yet another election. Anita now presides over the NCDO, the BCDL, and the TDC (Triangle Dart Council). Edie Hatszegi, treasurer of the Raleigh Dart League agreed to take on the same duties for the NCDO.

Partying Words

Hello friendly darters! I'd like to just take a quick moment to say a few words about the end of the season party we had on the 14th [of September.] I think the majority of people there enjoyed themselves. I know I did! Some kind people even thanked me, since I'm the social director. To be honest, I had the easy part. The real thanks should go to Richard Phillips, Bryan Durham, Nancy Flanagan and Kim Wilson. They did all the work that made the party a success. So, next time you see one of them buy them a beer or at least thank them for putting in the real effort to make the party happen. Shoot 'em well, and Party On!
