Notes from the Editor

Wow, leave for a week, and some amazing darts happen. I am going to list some hot shots here that aren't trophy contenders, so these folks can have their moment of glory. There were three low doubles cricket this past week, and two low 601. One of each of those made it into the trophy watch. The others were:

Ed Grubb, Doug Jeffcoat of Just Puppies III with a 27 dart doubles cricket; Andy Mead, Hugh Findlay of We're Not Mur-Eez with a 27 dart 631; and Tom Brown, Brian Selby with a 28 dart doubles cricket. See the other hot darts for the week on page 8. Great darts folks!!!

Just a small request to you all. Please make sure and put at least a last initial when you have duplicate names. There are an awful lot of Mikes in this league. ☺

Hall of Shame

This week we have another visitor losing 301 with an incorrect number of darts listed. That would be Karen Den Bleyker of D'Bull Hunters losing with 74 darts. Darts must be divisible by 3 folks.

Our team wanted a name that was both seasonal and culturally representative of the south. We thus chose Moms Everywhere and Dads brew iced tea every summer. When we chose the name we were unaware that the acronym could be construed as injurious to the name of an individual in our league. We wish to apologize for this coincidence.
