Week 3 is here, and I can't tell you how glad I am that week 2 is gone.

I have completed the board certifications and compiled all of my notes. They have been posted to the website and mailed to the captains list. I have made several recommendations to things that should be improved or checked. After improvements are made, let me know if you want them to be re-checked and the results posted.

There is a board meeting this Thursday at Arnies at 7 PM. All league members are welcome to attend. Protests and grievance procedures will be the main topic of discussion. There have been some ambiguities in the bylaw's that we want to address.

Letter of apology and retraction

In the spirit of cooperation and in an attempt to restore some level of civility to league politics, I would like to take this opportunity, publicly, to apologize to Don Richards for the misunderstanding at the dart party last Saturday that led the filing of a grievance against me. I was inappropriately loud in my attempt to explain my position on a disagreement over a turn thrown. I misread the score thrown and did a poor job of explaining what happened.

My intent was to apologize for a mistake I had made but I easily could have let the matter drop. My hubris was in my attempt to assert that I really did know the rules of etiquette, instead of just accepting the situation as it was and letting it go. I was wrong. I also would like to apologize to Ed and Cyndi Chase, who also were involved, and who I consider good and dear people. I hope they will remain my friends. The entire incident was a tempest in a teapot that got out of hand. I am truly sorry it happened.

I also want to offer my hand in reconciliation to BCDL Rules and Grievance Director Tom Brown for the unfortunate incident that occurred between us later that same day. Tom has worked hard and diligently in service to the BCDL for a number of years and he should be commended for that. It takes someone committed to the betterment of darts to offer to spend their free time and weekends working to make a better league environment for us all. Tom has shown he is willing to do that.

Therefore, I wish to say to all who are familiar with this matter that I am retracting my grievance against him and the statements I made in it. This matter has been concluded to my satisfaction and I would hope the events that occurred between Tom and myself would now be considered a private matter and not one for further public consideration. Tom is an exceptional dart thrower and a cheerful fellow with an outgoing personality who has represented the BCDL in the finest manner in the past. I wish to cast no aspersions on his character and it is my hope we can continue to work together, each in our own way, to make the BCDL a truly enjoyable and appropriately competitive environment.

With this, I hope we can lay this matter to rest. Nothing good can come from further acrimony and it's about time we got back to cursing at our darts (though quietly, under our breaths) instead of each other. Let the games resume. Whose turn is it to diddle?

Sean T. O'Brien

The BCDL needs YOU! After a great party, Dee has resigned from her position as Social Director and I for one will miss her. That means we need you to join the board as the next great party planner. Contact Galen Johnson for more information.

Hopefully we can all get along and enjoy ourselves. Until next time, ear's to ya!
