Update

The following is an e-mail from our Ft. Bragg friends who have been missing from Tuesday night darts. The Executive Council will make a ruling as to the matches played, and to be played shortly.
Andy,

Our team has run into a problem, with the current situation in this great world we live in 3 of my five players have ben deployed to a certain sandy place in the Middle east, these last two weeks we have been taking shots and making plans to go overseas. Im sorry we cant finish out the season but, Duty calls. Thats what sucks about this job but someone has to do it. I hope you guys continue the league cause we really had a good time going to play with you guys. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Robert Alfano

Attn: BCDL

The following is a letter from Kevin Kirk about his nomination for president.

After my letter to the league, I was nominated to run for President by someone (I don't know who). I imagine this person's nomination was a way of saying, "Instead of complaining, why not actually do something." And I accept that challenge. Thus, my "campaign" comes with an agenda. You should consider voting for me if you would like to see the following changes implemented in the league:

1. The divisional format will be changed. Teams will be divided in one of two ways, based on league member preferences:

a. Teams would select in which division they compete. Teams would not be entered into a different division without their consent. As incentive to compete in the proper incentive, awards would be proportional to the level of competition. Specifically, the league championship (i.e. cup) would be contended for only in the highest (A) division. If an odd number of teams were entered in divisions, some form of cross-division matches would be necessary.

b. Teams first would be seeded and then randomly divided into equal divisions. At the end of the round robin, the top teams from each would be entered into the championship tournament, and all other teams entered into different tiers of competition, based on finish.

2. League standings would be based on wins and losses first, and points second. At the very least, bonus points would be awarded to the winner of the match (2-4 points). Besting your opponent on a given night is what competition is all about.
Kevin Kirk

Hall of Shame

Just couldn't stand it, could you? The empty hall of shame was just beckoning to you, I guess. First: The standings reflect the penalty assessed to Kelt 1 for a scoresheet with a postmark of Thursday. We also have the following visiting this week: Pete Hall of Menace to Sobriety losing cricket with 70 darts. Divisible by 3 folks!!! ----Michael McTavish/Joel Eason's singles cricket game with no dart count. Can't figure a handicap without that guys!! And last, but not least we have Benji Durham who lost his singles 301 game to Andrew Kagan. The funny thing is that both of them had 0 left. It is hard for me to put down the number of points for someone that way. So..Benji, if your handicap plummeted, that would be the reason. You threw a 30 dart game with 0 points scored.

Pacific Cup Qualifiers

Want a chance to qualify for the Pacific Cup in Australia? You only have two more chances.
