Notes from the Editor

I'm back... well at least for this week. John will be filling in for me again next week...I hope... John, I do appreciate the fact that you took over for me during my journey to Texas, but geez...did you have to tell everyone about my boots and ten gallon hat? Not exactly a picture I want to be remembered for. ☺

I have several things to comment on this week, so be prepared for a bit of reading.

I still have a empty packet missing that was issued in week one. The packet was issued for the match of Salty Dogs & Skeleton Esquire, Ltd. It is the winning teams responsibility to turn in empty packets. That means Skeleton Esquire: I need that packet back. It is the packet numbered 3. I need that packet turned in by next week or the team will receive a 2 point penalty.

Reminders

I guess there are a few things that need to be re-stated for the record. We seem to have some confusion among the membership. We are, and have been for a season and a half, on a mail-in system for our scoresheets. This means that scoresheets are not to be dropped off at any bar. They are to be mailed, faxed, or e-mailed to John. Scoresheets are considered delivered when they get in John Strobel's hot little hands, and not until then. The only packets that should be dropped off are empty ones.

Scoresheets

Okay folks, I know that keeping two running scoresheets during a match is aggravating at times, but there is a reason for doing so. Point in fact is when the scoresheet from a match in week four was lost for a period of time. If there had been a second scoresheet kept, a lot of the confusion and trouble could have been avoided. So...two scoresheets folks....

Speaking of scoresheets..As you will notice from the Hall of Shame, there was another one not turned in properly. Since John was able to find out where it was on Friday (after the stats for this newsletter were completed) there is an eight point penalty assessed.

Hall of Shame

As you will notice, we had another scoresheet (ACRONYM and 5 Drunks) that was not sent to in one way or another. Had I not called around, I wouldn't know where it is. It was dropped off DUP. Remember folks, there is no dropping scoresheet off at any bar! That is not an option! T must be mailed, faxed, or E-mailed. You may hand them to me personally, no one else!
